Dear Allen:

This is a most belated letter-- belated because I was caught up in the need to prepare for and go to the NATO Conference in Paris, from which I returned two days ago.

It is nevertheless a most hearty and sincere effort to thank you for coming to talk to us in USIA. We found your comments and observations both interesting and useful.

We greatly appreciate your taking the time from your all-too-busy schedule to meet with us.

Cordially,

Andrew Berding
Deputy Director

The Honorable
Allen Dulles,
Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D.C.
